

DESIGN CULTURE COCREATE

Learning Series

Are you a Design Enthusiast Eager to make a difference with your creations?

ARCH College of Design & Business invites for a Design Culture Co-Create Learning Series 4!

What is a Learning Series?

It's a series featuring India's renowned designers, aimed at instilling a deeper sensitivity and understanding of design as a culture among those who wish to pursue creative and innovative domains. The goal is to inspire young design enthusiasts to become future innovators, creators, and design leaders.

Why Join?

Currently, with 40 speakers, the series boasts over 800 years of combined experience, and we are about to add over 200 more years of experience in the upcoming episodes from 12 speakers. Join to learn how design has different usages in various disciplines.
