6 Gon Realm, inspired by the meticulous and efficient way in which a honeycomb is created. The Collection is a creative approach of threading the hexagonal forms using varied materials and showing the imperfection in a creative way using creative pattern making and applique.
Allure, meaning the quality of being powerfully and mysteriously attractive or fascinating. A symbol of fleeting beauty, the bird of paradise evokes the poetic rhythms and ever changing elements in nature. Each piece conjures the bird’s delicate form, from the curves of its feathers to its enchanting dance. The collection encapsulates intricacies of these creatures both literally and figuratively.
Ganjappa

The concept design is inspired by the playing cards of Orissa from the historic times-Ganjappa in which the cards were artistically hand painted which have lost its existence and are replaced by the contemporary version of the playing cards.
